

KRZYSZTOF GRZESIK FRICS REV

Krzysztof Grzesik is a chartered surveyor, Polish qualified valuer and a Recognised European Valuer with over 35 years experience as a property consultant in the UK and mainland Europe. In the UK he first worked for several years as a valuation surveyor at the UK Government's Valuation Office and then as a partner of Kinney & Green, chartered surveyors in the City of London.

In 1991 he set up the real estate services arm of Price Waterhouse in Poland and was also involved in agency and property consultancy work in the Czech Republic, Hungary and Russia. In 1997 he joined Healey & Baker (Cushman & Wakefield) as a partner, and in 2000 he became managing partner of King Sturge Poland. In 2004, Krzysztof established property valuation and advisory firm Polish Properties Sp. z o.o. in Warsaw.

Krzysztof is a past Chairman RICS Europe and former chairman of the RICS Continental Europe Standards Board. He is the International Representative of the Polish Federation of Valuers' Associations (PFVA) and sits on the Polish Valuation Standards Commission.