

Michael MacBrien

Michael MacBrien is co-founder of MacBrien Cuper Isnard, Director General of the European Property Federation (EPF) and Adviser to The European Group of Valuers' Associations (TEGoVA)

Place of Birth

Luxembourg-Ville (Luxembourg)

Education

- . Selwyn House (Westmount, Montreal)
- . Law degree (Université Libre de Bruxelles)
- . Masters in European Law (Institut d'Études Européennes de l'Université Libre de Bruxelles)

Work Experience

- . 1982: Assistant, European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries Associations
- . 1983-1989: Adviser, European Banking Federation during the years in which the European Commission and banks designed the legislation underpinning the Internal Market for Financial Services
- . 1989-1994: Consultant in European affairs
- . 1994 - : Co-founder, MacBrien Cuper Isnard, Consultants in European Affairs, Brussels
- 1997 - : Setting up of the European Property Federation (EPF) and management of its Secretariat
- 2004 - : Reorganisation of and management of the Secretariat of The European Group of Valuers' Associations (TEGoVA)

MCI: www.macbriencuperisnard.com